What to Expect: The Stone Pine Walk calls attention to 16 interesting places in the heart of the Lompoc where vintage architecture, historic treasures, colorful murals, and locally-owned businesses come together to create an inspiring health and fitness walk for community members and visitors.

Description: The walk begins at the clock tower near the intersection of Ocean Street and H Street and follows a counterclockwise route along city sidewalks. Dozens of murals – on street corners, in alleyways, and on the sides of prominent buildings provide a visual feast depicting scenes of Lompoc's heritage, scenic beauty, and more. A museum, historic buildings, art galleries, monuments and local eateries round out this urban walk experience. The trailhead is accessible by bus and public parking is nearby.

Things to Do: Walking, sightseeing, dining, and shopping.

Amenities: Restaurants and shops along route with benches, restrooms, murals, a museum, sculptures, an art gallery local historical sites and a small public park.

What to Bring: Map, sun protection, layered clothing, flashlight, first aid kit, water, snack, cellphone, personal identification and other items.

Trail Etiquette: Have fun, be friendly and considerate. Leave what you find. Respect others. Dispose of waste properly.
